1. GERTIE & GIDGET, THE GIRAFFES

Palm fiber has been carefully stained with spots to create this loveable pair mama giraffe is fourteen-foot tall. Her life-sized lovable newborn mini me will delight you at six feet tall! Sponsored by Lonza

2. SWEET CAROLINE, THE BUTTERFLY

A tribute to Monarchs everywhere, the five-foot high butterfly can be seen day and night. Thanks to the Flamethrower coleus with copper coleus added for definition, palm fiber creates intricate patterns on both sides of her six-foot wingspan. Outlined in sparkling solar fairy lights.

Sponsored by Rush Hobby & Garden Center | Rush Heating & Cooling, Inc.

3. GATEWAY TO GREENWOOD

This is the perfect spot to snap that group photo. Covered in creeping ficus, the inside is accented by variegated creeping ficus with twinkling fairy lights overhead to light the night. Verbena spills down the walls in shades of purple, pink and lavender while coleus wrap their petals around the base in shades of pink and black. Red and white begonias erupt in mounds of flowers. Swirls of color from the calibrachoa. Emerald and Silver Falls dichondra dangle overhead. Red rooster carex, and variegated potato vine cover the top of the Gateway. Sponsored by RE/MAX Action Realty

4. MILKSHAKE, THE COW

This well-mannered cow has a lovely coat of variegated creeping fig with spots of chocolate chip ajuga. Her cowbell is held by a burlap collar while she waits patiently for you to join her in a field of Shasta daisies. Her nearby sign made of creeping fig reminds you to "eat mor chicken."

Sponsored by Chick-fil-A of Greenwood

5. ANNIVERSARY CAKE Celebrating 75 Years of Camp Fellowship

What better way to celebrate the 75th Anniversary of Camp Fellowship than with a four-foot-tall by six-foot-wide, three-tiered cake! This cake is festively "iced" with creeping fig, creeping jenny, calibrachoa and verbena.

Sponsored by Fellowship Camp & Conference Center

6. STANLEY, THE STORK

Standing 4-foot-tall Stanley is proud of his new delivery. His plumage of white polka dot plant is accented with Dragon's tongue along his strong wings.

Sponsored by Self Regional Healthcare

7. HARLEY, THE LABRADOR

Ready to play with his palm fiber ball, our three-foot high Lab is six feet long from nose to tail, with Dragon's Tongue on the body and chocolate chip ajuga punctuating his muzzle and paws. Sponsored by Harley Funeral Home & Crematory

8. GAMECOCK

He's a fireball ready for action! Twelve feet tall and covered in red alternanthera, with a tail tipped in dragon's blood sedum & Spanish moss. "Fancy feathers black" coleus is used to provide depth to the top feathers, this topiary is a true replica of USC's beloved "Fighting Gamecock." Who wouldn't be cocky in a vibrant field of chocolate drop & flamethrower coleus, purple potato vines & red petunias.

Sponsored by E. A. Sween

9. LANDER BEARCAT

With massive jaws and mighty paws, the Lander University Bearcat proudly towers over you at eleven feet tall and six feet wide. Creeping variegated fig, with true yellow alternanthera, create a velvety fur of chartreuse. Delightful wire vine highlights his face. Lander University designed its stylish blue jersey.

Sponsored by Lander University

9 & 19. THE DABBLING DUCKS (two locations)

Our delightful ducks playing beside the water are covered with leptinella and sedum on their backs & low growing Turkish sedum on their wings. The males have lichen feet and bellies to impress their female companions, while the females' spanish moss give them a lively appeal. The yellow duck is Fancy Finch ajuga. Sponsored by Manley Garvin, LLC

10 & 24. THE PLAYFUL PANDA FAMILY (two locations)

These iconic bears from China are big eaters, spending 12 hours a day consuming bamboo. This year they are dressed up in Spanish moss for the Festival! Sponsored by Teijin Carbon Fibers, Inc.

11. BUBBLES, THE SEAHORSE

The graceful seahorse seems to be floating quietly along, content to gather admiration for the explosion of colors and textures created by beautiful succulents and club moss on its four-foot-tall body.

Sponsored by Citizens Trust Company

12. FLORA, THE FLAMINGO

This four-foot wading bird is ready to strut its stuff for all to admire. Pink and red earth star bromeliads cover this elegant topiary while its two-foot long stylishly curved body & neck is supported on two legs of palm fiber.

Sponsored by Motto Mortgage

13. GRRRRR KASASA, THE TIGER

Beware the fourteen-foot-tall, seventeen-foot-long, ferocious tiger sculpted of orange palm fiber. He proudly guards a waterfall of weeping love grass and emerald falls dichondra, this topiary is inspired by one of R. Thornwell Dunlap, Jr.'s favorite sculptures. Surrounding the Tiger is a meadow of rex begonias, moonstone ice plant, moss roses, flamethrower coleus, wire vine, and various tradescantias. Sponsored by Countybank

14. BRINGING LIGHT TO LIFE PAVILION

You'll have it made in the shade when you stop to visit one of the Festival's most dynamic creations – an arching copper topped pavilion covered with English ivy and a variety of colorful verbenas! Designed and constructed by Velux, the structure houses skylights for the real experience of being immersed in nature.

Sponsored by VELUX Greenwood, LLC

15. WHEN PIGS FLY

That's right pigs fly in Greenwood at the SC Festival of Flowers! Barbie-Q is quite the ham, she will love posing with you for photos! Covered in creeping fig, her piggy ears are dressed up with pink polka dot plant. Her snout is echeveria.

Sponsored by Connie Maxwell

16. SMILE, PHOTO OP

This double-sided, creeping fig photo op boasts face-framing hats and hair made of Prairie fire, weeping love grass, autumn fern and Spanish moss. The back reminds you to SMILE big in palm fiber before you put your head in.

Sponsored by Ascend Performance Materials

17. THE JELLYFISH

Don't be shocked by these floating friends! Jellyfish are made from a multitude of succulents that create their luminous bodies and trailing tentacles.

Sponsored by Pediatric Dentistry of Greenwood

18. JEEP WRANGLER

This custom-built, 4/5th scale jeep is exactly what you need on your topiary safari. An "annual" favorite, the jeep sports an exterior of lemon ball, and Turkish sedums. Creeping fig, chocolate creeping jenny, chocolate chip ajuga, clubmoss, and palm fiber create a cool interior. Creeping fig covers the grill and roof, while the customized red, yellow, white alternanthera, flamethrower and copper coleus, on the hood finishes it off. Sponsored by Quality Chrysler of Greenwood

19. REEVES, THE MERMAID

Locks of burro's tail & silver falls dichondra frame a friendly face of lichen. Her body is covered in lichen while an enchanting pattern of succulents, white alternanthera, earth stars and variegated water celery trail down her graceful tail. A top of red alternanthera with a matching belt. Sponsored by Cambridge Dental Associates

19. STENNOLISSA, THE DOLPHIN

The whimsical bottlenose dolphin seems caught in action, spouting water as it leaps four feet high in the air. Green creeping fig creates a sleek definition for our friendly dolphin. Sponsored by Buck Stove, Pool & Spa

20. KING KONG, THE GORILLA

This 6-foot-tall ape comes to life with a vibrant coat of red ruby alternanthera and accents of palm fiber. Sponsored by Greenwood Family Dentistry

21. ALI, THE GATOR

A delightful mix of hens & chicks with John Creech, Turkish sedums and moss create the illusion of the scales, ridges & shadows along the alligator's back. This six-foot long variegated fig alligator's smile full of red hypoestes, lets you know he's happy at home near the water. Sponsored by Lakelands Overhead Door & Installation, LLC

22. EMMETT, THE CITADEL BULLDOG

Four feet of determination covered in creeping fig is the best way to describe Emmett from The Military College of South Carolina. His signature citadel hat with spiked collar and palm fiber accented face tells you he's no knob.

Sponsored by Davis & Floyd, Inc. | in Memory of Emmett I. Davis, Jr.

23. PETE, THE PEACOCK

Making his debut this year! This proud bird is ready to flaunt his stuff. Standing 5' tall his proud neck is covered in feathers fashioned out of palm fiber. His 6' wide tail feathers are planted with berry mix verbena.

Sponsored by Carolina Health Centers

25. MILAK, THE MAMA ELEPHANT

Standing tall in a field of captivating flowers, Milak's body is covered with creeping fig. Ears filled with soft Spanish moss highlight her massive twelve-foot height. Her colorful headdress adds a visual punch filled with succulents, walking iris, coleus, and alternanthera. Mama's blanket is an eye-catching collage of sedums, yellow & red alternantheras, mazus reptans, begonias, Ghost plants, and ajuga. Sponsored by Digestive Disease Group, PA & The Greenwood Endoscopy Center, Inc.

26. HORTON, THE BABY ELEPHANT

Who doesn't love a baby elephant? This four-foot charmer made of creeping fig and ears of Spanish moss playfully spouts water from his curvy trunk. Helping his Mama carry a load of fresh flowers to the market. Sponsored by Digestive Disease Group, PA & The Greenwood Endoscopy Center, Inc.

27. ARI, THE LION

The king of the jungle is truly regal, with a massive mane of prairie fire carex. His face is accented with lemon ball and Irish moss on his chin. Creeping fig creates a sleek coat for the lion's 4 by 6 foot high body. Sponsored by Greenwood Commissioners of Public Works

27. JIBARI, THE LION CUB

You can tell this two-foot-tall baby is just waiting to be king. Three feet long, his body is completely made of creeping fig, with palm fiber ears, nose and tail just like dad. Sponsored by Cox Accounting Solutions, LLC

28. ALI'S BANANA BOY, THE HANGING MONKEY

This three feet long hanging monkey is looking dapper with his coat of variegated fig and palm fiber bow tie! Palm fiber is used to cover his hands, feet, tail, and mischievous face. Sponsored by Town & Country Construction of SC, Inc.

28. COCO, THE FUNKY MONKEY

Dressed in variegated fig with club moss hair, she delights onlookers while hanging from her favorite tree. Palm fiber hands, feet, tail, and face with flowers complete this 2-feet tall charmer's look, in true southern style. Sponsored by Steifles Appliance

28. PINK PRINCESS, THE FROG

Ready to make a splash, this sweet frog spouts water into her pond. Adorned with a crown of pink blush aloe, hens and chicks, she is covered in variegated creeping fig, while her webbed feet are composed of lichen, her pink toe nails complete her look. Sponsored by Remax/Sharon Mulkey

28. SUNNY & RAY, THE TURTLES

Two painted turtles are enjoying an amusing day by the water. The Turtles' shells are planted with a variety of vibrant succulents. Sponsored by The Wiley Team

29. MUSHROOMS

Joining the flora and fauna this year at the Courtyard are delightful sprouting mushrooms. Moss, ajuga, creeping jenny, ogon, oyster plant, chocolate chip ajuga, Sponsored by Young Wellnes

30. DINO DUDE, THE T-REX

At six-feet tall, T-Rex will awe both children and adults. Covering the king of the dinosaurs is creeping fig. A mouth full of red bromeliad gives him a menacing smile. A mountain of topsy turvy echeveria, ogon, and African spear plant, and an array of diverse succulents cover his back. He roars proudly in a meadow of club moss, yellow sweet flag grass, & corkscrew rush. Eyes designed by McKenzie Taxidermy. Sponsored by Piedmont Family Dentistry

31. BARON, THE STATELY HORSE

Standing eight feet tall in an enchanting field of creeping jenny, Amidst purple salvia, Wendy's wish salvia, and meandering Linda coleus. His shimmering coat is composed of variegated fig while a magnificent main & tail of dichondra silver falls ripple in the breeze. Around his regal neck a wreath of begonias, variegated ice plant, and Pink poodle coleus. Sponsored by Friends of the Greenwood County Library

32. BIRDIE, THE GOLF BALL

A 16" wide golf ball covered in white hypoestes is perched proudly on a palm fiber tee. Standing almost 5' tall, it appears ready to be launched across your favorite course. Sponsored by McCravy, Newlon & Sturkie Law Firm, P.A.
