Submission Information

Criteria for artwork consideration consist of a poster/print theme which includes art, photography, horticulture, garden tours, family activities, wine, sports, beauty, flowers and music. The words "45th SC Festival of Flowers" and "It's A Blooming Good Time!" must also be included in artwork. Visual artists and graphic designers are invited to submit their innovative and visually compelling original artwork to promote the annual festival, feature the creativity and variety of the events, celebrate the festival, commemorate its colorful past, and pay homage to the Festival's 45 years. In addition, the chosen artwork may be incorporated into the marketing personality for this year's event, in whole or in part, through selected promotional materials.

I am submitting my artwork for consideration in the 2012 SC Festival of Flowers Poster Competition. The artwork that I am submitting is my own original work and it has not been previously published. I understand that if my artwork is selected it will be used by the SC Festival of Flowers as the primary image for the 2012 45th SC Festival of Flowers Poster and related festival promotional and marketing materials. The original artwork will remain the sole property of the SC Festival of Flowers.

If my artwork is selected by the judges I agree to the following: (1) to abide by the Poster Competition Rules, (2) to provide a brief biography, and (3) to personally sign a limited edition of 500 posters and/or 50 limited edition prints for sale before, during and after the 45th SC Festival of Flowers, June 2nd – 24th, 2012.
